

Instructional Resources for High School Broadcast Journalism

Television Production

Phillip Harris

Goodheart-Willcox Publishers

Television Production Handbook and Video Basics both by Herbert Zettl are good for reference but above high school level.

Writing for Broadcast Journalism: Aim for the Heart: Write for the Ear, Shoot for the Eye: A Guide for TV Producers and Reporters

Al Tompkins

Producing Broadcast News: Power Producer: A Practical Guide to TV News Producing,

3rd Edition By Dow Smith

Television News-A Handbook for Writing, Reporting, Shooting and Editing

Teresa Keller and Stephen A. Hawkins

Holcomb Hathaway Publishers

Scottsdale, Arizona 85250

Writing News for Television—Style and Format

Victoria McCullough Carroll

Iowa State University Press

Also recommended as a reference is Law of the Student Press.

Available at <http://www.splc.org>

Web Resources worth checking out:

<http://www.highschooljournalism.org>

<http://www.digitaljuice.com> (Select DJTV from the top of their website)

<http://www.video101course.com> (on-line production course sponsored by Broadcast Education Association)

<http://www.cybercollege.com> (on-line production course)

<http://www.videouniversity.com> (on-line articles and forum for teachers)

<http://www.current.tv/studio/survivalguide/>

<http://www.mervinblock.com/columns/rules.html>

<http://www.nationalstudent.tv/teachersmain.asp>

<http://www.jteacher.com>

<http://www.studenttelevision.com>

<http://www.schooltv.com/resources.htm>

<http://www.apple.com/education/ilifeawards/>

<http://www.journaliststoolbox.com>

<http://www.splc.org>

<http://www.poynter.org>

<http://www.jea.org>

<http://www.varsityworld.com>

<http://www.sc.edu/cmciis/so/sipa>

<http://www.rtndf.org>

<http://www.hsbj.org>

<http://www.copyrightkids.org>

<http://www.schooltube.com>

<http://www.school-video-news.com>